Dedication

To Lady Liberty

Not just the one standing tall over the Hudson who represents our fundamental freedom as a collective no matter what part of the planet you inhabit, but also to the proverbial Lady Liberty who is embedded in each one of us.

May we beseech her now & always

Preface:

Greetings, my name is Jenay, I am an enlightened emissary, revolutionizing your world as you read this. Brought to you today by luck, love & light, higher forces wish to communicate with you through me, if you are game. Just keep reading & the value of the verse will reveal itself in due time, on one condition: you must grant permission via an open mind. This is the only way to receive the Immaculate Intel presented here. Otherwise, it will just be a bunch of words on a page that may make sense or not depending on your capacity to engage. Your whole heart & mind have to be on board here, or else you will not receive the slew of righteous messages. You will just absorb what your finite mind sees fit & believes is rational & concrete according to a survival mentality built on mistrust & flawed faith. So, strap in with an open heart & mind, if you want a greater experience filled with magic & miracles.

Wondering if you are in the right place? YOU ARE. Gen X... I am YOU, which means that you will inherently adore the badass sentiment this book delivers. Gen Y & Z... this book was written with you in mind. Younger gens are the future of the human species; thus, it would be wise to pay attention to the guidance this book has in store for you. Baby Boomers & beyond... lean in, this could be what you have been waiting for... all these years. Saddle up!

Attention all human citizens... this is a book on the collective destiny of our people, the human species, just in case the world was wondering. I'm pretty sure most folks are a fan of being briefed on important issues & significant world events. News & media, YouTube & social plats only show the B. S. (belief systems). Books of this caliber arrive on scene, to display the TRUTH in full color. No misconceptions, lies, falsehoods, or mixed messages here. No half-baked notions, silly speculations, or ill-conceived interpretations here. No biased or unbiased opinions, vague assumptions built from faith or beliefs taught by government or religious doctrine, & most of all... no Bull Shit. Just... straight up TRUTH, with no chaser. Gentle reminder: TRUTH, doesn't care what your opinion is, because it's not debatable.

The context within this book is a gift from on high & should not be taken lightly. Just because the Bible has been baked into the psyche of man on a fundamental level all these centuries, doesn't make its patriarchal portrayals of truth, TRUTH. Just because Divine Intel appears in a book that was recently written, (this one) doesn't mean that it's not TRUTH & it will not be the next biblical thing to hit masses. I'm no priest or preacher, but like I said, I am an enlightened emissary, cosmic conduit & transmitter of truth. All that you are about to take in, is meant for your growth & advancement here on this planet & beyond. Soul Class: now in session. Commit to seeing this through, & your next level will be your next adventure, my friend. For the record, this kind of book would not even be available to the human community, unless human beings were at the stage in their collective evolution of entering the promised land, so to speak. "When the student is ready... the teacher will appear," is fitting to assert in this case. Our souls are essentially ready to graduate to the next level.

So then, the plot thickens over New World Order & big-ticket items of interest like the state of our union in America, infrastructure collapsing, dangerous global warming, & this royal reckoning as a race we seem to be experiencing so eloquently. Humankind is changing. I think people deserve the truth. My mission in life is to deliver that via books. I am here to help people upgrade to 5D living free. I am a facilitator of prosperity consciousness, unity consciousness & the kind of liberated existence that we as a people, as a nation of souls in suits DESERVE to live. As we move away from the old paradigm of suffering, sacrifice & survival, we embrace, name & claim our true God identity which is a soul in a human suit... not vying for survival but living life to the fullest. Our most illustrious, luxurious, effervescent, best version... awaits. There is no better time than right NOW to be FREE. Lady Liberty stands tall right alongside Lady Gaia. They are waiting for us to enter into the Promised Land. Let's go!

I will take any questions you might have, gnawing at your psyche or voice of reason... via email. Leave any & all questions (large or small; complex or simple; all questions matter) at the door of my inbox. Don't be shy, I will be the only one who reads them. And I will keep all questions anonymous, unless otherwise noted. You can direct them here: jenayzap@gmail.com. Then, in future YouTube channel broadcasts on “JZapp: Next Level” I plan to ANSWER THEM. Like a “Dear Abby” of sorts, I will attempt to address anyone’s inquiries as they pertain to TRUTH. Be sure to tune in. The channel is just getting started as I write this, so be sure to show your support by subscribing to it! Just type “JZapp: Next Level” into the YouTube search engine. Hit the notification bell to not miss any pop-up appearances. Namaste.

Now then... please, be seated, & enjoy the gorgeous gem I fashioned for you. When you’re through, please write a review & then pass the book on to the next willing participant. Thanks in advance. As always, thank you for having me!

“Transforming our world from illusion of separation to an experience of Heaven on Earth is the true final frontier.”

~~metaphysics-for-life.com

According to quantum physics a particle vibrating due to your sound when you speak can affect a molecule inside a star at the edge of the Universe instantly. This phenomenon is known as quantum entanglement. The greatest illusion of this Universe is the illusion of separation.

Foreword:

The state of our world began with a choice. One choice then two choices, then three, then thousands. Thousands became millions & millions became 7 & a half billion. We are a species of ONE. One body that moves according to choices. We are one body, the human race, who is composed of 7 & a half billion smaller bodies that each make choices. These choices are only made due to the installment of the “free will component” & I cannot express enough, how that is the ONLY reason why we suffer. Remember Adam & Eve? Well, they were allegedly naked, all frolicking around like carefree kids with no shame. Then... legend has it, they suddenly felt embarrassed, scurried to cover up & hid themselves from each other as if they were naughty or wrong. “Original sin” is a LIE... made up in the mind of “man.” Before we CHOSE to feel separate, foolish & forsaken (original sin) we were in a natural state of bliss. What the status quo calls “original sin” is or was actually a choice to feel separate, foolish & forsaken, NOT a natural disposition as the misleading title “original” falsely implies. Thus, on the contrary, we actually have “original bliss” instead. Well, ain’t that a bitch, to think we were duped all these centuries.

That said... today is a new day, new era, new century, let’s UNCHOOSE this fictional “O.S.” When we put our foot down & revel in the choosing of our ORIGINAL BLISS (happiness, health, wholeness & peace) we become restored to our original God-intended natural state. We return to love, link to our Divine heritage, regain our true identity, & take back our power from whence we gave it away to the gnarly idea of “original sin” & the massive disturbance it caused in the scheme of things. We get recalibrated, revolutionized & renovated to fit a 21st century mindset of what it truly means to live in the completeness of dis-ease free self-love. We will then live in a wellspring of possibilities that do not harbor, harm or harden us, but that swoon us with blossoming beautiful feelings of joy, freedom, wealth, health, balance, stability, & serenity. We will finally come full circle, back to when “Adam & Eve” were a carefree power couple basking in their sun-kissed birthday suits. Now THAT is living. *Refer to “The Age of Aquarius” book for “the new” complete interpretation of the “Adam & Eve” story. (see “Meet Her Books”)

Chapter 1: The Future of Our Civilization

It's been 100 years since the Industrial Revolution, & we live in a world today where everything is controlled, monitored, & otherwise owned, dominated & ruled by corporations. The oligarchs dominate our society with their overindulgent greedy appetites for MORE at the cost of everyone & thing they stomp on to get it. They have cultivated so much food that we have famine. They have cultivated so much satisfaction that we have starvation. Across the world, we have poverty, homelessness, scarcity, whole demographics of people suffering without clean water, healthcare or humane living conditions. It is the 21st century & there are STILL refugee camps filled with what capitalism has created: the consequences of an uneven distribution of wealth. This may sound like a political argument, but it's NOT. It's about human beings, our health & wellness, happiness & longevity. To all the right-wing conservatives out there or anyone with a "sides" mentality... this is not about SIDES. It is about the welfare of our human community members who have heartbeats. Right or left, blue or red, elephant or donkey does not apply. Non-partisan is an actual concept; we should consider using it more often.

Indeed, not all individuals in the human community have equal intelligence, strength or skill, but that doesn't mean that they should not be treated fairly, with respect & valued via proper care &/or compensation. Since we are known to be pioneers of liberty... we, as an American nation, need to REDEFINE capitalism so that it does not diminish a person's potential, reduce their self-worth & chain them to a rat wheel for the rest of their lives. If you did happen to ask me what political figure I would endorse & recommend doing some research on... I would strongly suggest Andrew Yang. This gentleman has an excellent mindset when it comes to revising our current crumbling skewed system. He has the high I.Q., formal education, credentials, experience, wisdom, empathy, & ingenuity to back it all up. Mr. Yang certainly has a handle on the right courses of action for instrumental change to take place. The fundamental principles that built our nation... need a reboot. Ya think? Yang's new proposed ideas & solutions are a good starting point for meeting the kind of new standard we so desperately need to reestablish.

A 21st century standard should be built upon soul-based, heart-centered values. To the best of my knowledge, Yang's ideologies aim right for that target.

What does the current imbalanced system look like? An airline pilot (retired or fired) receives a 60-mil severance package, lifetime uses of a private jet, free tickets, lifetime security detail & a 10-year supply of Pepsi & condoms, for god sake. It's no secret that while CEO's & corporate leaders get lofty raises, bonuses & high-rise office spaces with amenities... laborers & employees on the other hand, barely get health care, sick days, paid vacation, or anything close to a living wage. As I am writing this, mainstream American workers from all walks of life are ON STRIKE. From Hollywood to healthcare to John Deere to factory & food distributors, to restaurants & retail, employees are rising up & refusing to work until a redistribution of wealth, essentially... is deployed. The USA is in the midst of the "Great Strike of 2021" involving millions of low paid & exploited US workers across virtually all US industries. Hmmm, maybe folks are starting to notice the raw deal, & how they have been getting ripped off for years.

...said the Status Quo.

The world economy is tragically fortified with a select few. These people are the ones who call the shots, make the rules, fashion the American sham dream, American destiny, & dominate world fate. These people are the ones truly in power. They have dictated what the human community buys & sells; produces & proliferates; consumes, steals, swindles & destroys. The top tier elite use nepotism to keep it tight & trending from one era to the next. These organized crime syndicates disguised as just leaders are pros, they know just how to pit folks against one another on purpose. They use divisive tactics to separate & conquer, like investigators do with codefendants to get them to turn on each other for a deal. They are professional liars, thieves & manipulators. These people wrote the book on lip service & the manual on how to rob a bank & get away with it. They authored the practical guide on ripping people off not behind their backs... but while they are LOOKING straight at them, in the eyes, with a smile. This group has mastered telling you what you want to hear. Pandering to one side here... then appeasing another side there. These people play the game in a most malicious way. They cheat. They count cards. They hire goons to do their dirty work, so they always appear clean as a whistle. They are the kind of folks who have a pair of plastic gloves in the back pocket & know just how to cover tracks to clean up a crime scene.

The “system” is a trap, a catch-22, unfair, unjust & a menace to mental health, physical preservation, & spiritual hygiene. The fact that overtime & over-working is touted like a badge of honor in this society, is a big indicator of derailed priorities. The system is broken, & a snake pit, quite frankly. Go ahead, test the waters. You too will wind up with your back against the wall, your feet all blistered up, your face all smacked around with ups & downs. There is no escape from modern day man where dog eats dog & “survival of the fittest” is king. “His” government is run by the old Roman Empire that crucified “the truth, light & way.” Pontius Pilot didn’t crucify Jesus... he crucified the lamb of God: peace. Instead of extending an olive branch, he drove nails into it. He crucified the truth, light & way, that Jesus stood for. He crucified... the love, light & truth that Jesus preached & promoted. Today, the “system” crucifies that truth, light & way every single second via cunning commercialism. The destructive, damaging, systematic rhetoric insidiously streaming forth unto every vein & artery of our entire manmade infrastructure is the REAL VIRAL PANDEMIC. Covid-19 ain't got nothin' on THAT. (For your reference, this is the brand of Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) I will be referring to in this book)

The system crucifies LOVE every time an innocent creature is harmed, or a person is denied humane treatment or inalienable rights. The system crucifies LOVE every time Mother Earth is pillaged, raped, polluted or poisoned. The Roman Empire is alive & well & no longer is this OKAY. Today is a new day: God's 21st Century. Which btw, precedes this book in "Thee Trilogy of the Ages" series. (see "Meet Her Books" for special Author Note)

- BOOK 1: "The Decline of Civility: America's Fall From Grace"
- BOOK 2: "God's 21st Century: How the Soul Rises to Power"
- BOOK 3: "Pandora's Box Is Burning: Humanity's Final Frontier"

The "Great Awakening" began to creep slowly into the mainstream just 35 years ago or so. But now... there are those of us who have come out of the cosmic closet completely & we are no longer hiding our rights to truth, freedom, liberty & the real pursuit of happiness, which is honoring our true God identity. The "camp" that is awakening & ascending & learning to sustain 5D consciousness is at a critical mass. This means that more than half... or at least 51% of humans on the planet, at this time, are at this stage. This critical mass thus is causing "The Shift" on the planet, as we begin to finally, collectively, undergo a planetary transformation on a grand scale that cannot be denied.

Many humans may resist this change, the changing times, & the uncomfortable shifts from old patterns & programs to new more advanced ones. This change is occurring on the most fundamental levels of our human DNA. Our souls or "light bodies," are thus pioneering this new epic Age with or without our consent. As said before, this is the Golden Age of mankind & more than half of us have already decided to collectively collaborate in the raising of our vibratory frequencies on a quantum level. In order to collectively coexist here on Earth as a race of homo luminous beings, the outdated versions of us: homo sapien, must be discarded like outgrown exoskeletons. It is time. The day has come. The dawning of the Age of Aquarius is at hand. The “camps” who decide to stay within the realm of 3D living for the time being, still have a choice, as of now. For, those of us awakening... are building the bridges over to the “other side.” All my books & many other outfits, are here to assist the human community to facilitate the “molting” process. (see the “Complimentary Activation List” in back)

We are all one, essentially... & we are here to help one another ascend ultimately. But this can only be done with the permission of those wanting to. We are not going to drag anybody. We, “Ascension Pathers,” & all the entities serving us from higher dimensions... are here to assist, but we will only do so with permission. Otherwise, camps of people that choose to stay in the lower vibratory bracket... will eventually die off, & the planet will thus begin to be populated with the new breed of human: homo luminous. This will continue to happen until there are barely any outdated versions left, the kind of folks that choose the struggle, strife, suffering, survival paradigm. The “New Earth” paradigm will eventually thus be the ONLY paradigm here on Earth. Hopefully sooner than later, 2030, 2040 & 50 on... we will be a very different species that coexists here.

Earth living will look very different come the second half of this century. Our infrastructure will be completely renovated to be seamless, energy efficient, green, technologically sound & virtually infallible. The overextended supply & demand chain with multiples of product after product will be minimized & localized. This will substantially curb the wear & tear on our planet & her resources by reducing the long, time-consuming voyages of ships & tractor trailers. Sustainability will be the mandatory main ingredient to all things made. Products will be made to last & endure, as opposed to having a deliberate shelf-life for the sole purpose of another sale. The days of a swinging cobwebby blown light bulb are over, lol. LED light bulbs are made to last 20 years before having to be swapped out, which is a prime example of the extreme potential of advanced technology. Our monetary system will have likely transitioned to DEFI or Decentralized Finance with decentralized exchanges that are not controlled by a central bank system. The new system will be for the people by the people with peer to peer (P2P) technology that empowers ALL to achieve an equal generous level of wealth. Dare I say... cryptocurrency is here to stay, folks.

The modus operandi of “big government” will be reevaluated. Oligarchs will no longer be in charge. Our rule of law, the justice system, & the Prison Industrial Complex will be purged & reinvented to match new standards based on a humane code of ethics that serve heart-based soul growth & expansion. In terms of incarceration, rehabilitation will be the main ingredient to all newly orchestrated processes & programs. The ideology of “loving thine enemy” will be demonstrated by & through saturation of the sector of crime & punishment with light & holistic healing, as opposed to deprivation & harsh treatment. Choice individuals & organizations have already begun this long-awaited road to “recovery.”

The former Dean of Harvard University, Martha Minnow has a Ted Talk called: “How forgiveness can create a more just legal system.” The talk is fascinating, to say the least, & very refreshing to know that there are already people in power waking up to these solutions. She speaks of concepts such as “Restorative Justice Alternatives” & how studying the psychology of criminal behavior can help us resolve the root causes of conflict & thus begin to prevent the conflict that creates crime in the first place. Poverty, discrimination, bankruptcy, depression, mental illness, skewed access to education & recreation, broken families, etc., are all conditions where crime finds its humble beginnings, in most cases. She focuses on the school to prison pipeline & all the institutions that feed into the prison system. She endorses mindset shifts across the board, on both sides of the equation. Check her out, this lady is no joke...

Martha Minow has taught at Harvard Law School since 1981, where her courses include civil procedure, constitutional law, fairness and privacy, family law, international criminal justice, jurisprudence, law and education, nonprofit organizations, and the public law workshop. An expert in human rights and advocacy for members of racial and religious minorities and for women, children, and persons with disabilities, she also writes and teaches about digital communications, democracy, privatization, military justice, and ethnic and religious conflict.

As we were saying... in the future, upon New Earth, the Military Industrial Complex will be dismantled & WAR will no longer be a profiteering enterprise for the greedy. The idea of an “arms race” will be a thing of the past & almost amusingly considered to be medieval. Going forward, youth will not be wasted on the young, by trapping them into growing up way too fast & missing out on their whole first half of life, essentially. The catch-22 of “serving your country” as a “true patriot,” while accruing unfortunate & insidious battle scars for life, will no longer be a thing. Our young men & women shall get to actually BE with their young families instead of being mandated to subscribe to a higher risk than reward life filled with long absences & unexpected twists & turns.

The military shall be transformed into teams of honorable soldiers that actually fit the definition of “hero.” They will be trained to serve humanity, rebuild national & international communities & renovate this land to New Earth standards across the globe, comparable to a kind of “Peace Corps.” That said, instead of warmongers, there will be SCOUTS who scope out areas in our nation & world that need HELP, aide & assistance to grow, flourish & thrive. The goal will be to do away with ghettos, “poor” underprivileged neighborhoods, third world countries, gangland, cartels, terrorist run organizations, & militant fascist dictatorships. Abroad, these adverse conditions are what make MILLIONS of folks flee for their life. This is precisely why we have an overabundance of “illegal” immigrants inundating America for refuge. If we RESOLVE these adverse conditions, we resolve the border crisis as well. In the future, the military will be our saving grace, if we transform it into an entity with healing hands & SOLUTIONS.

New Earth/Society 2.0 will see healthcare & the holistic health & wellness industry be successfully homogenized to serve the WHOLE BEING, mind, body, & soul. This way, just like products will be built to last, so will WE! No more will clinics, hospitals & doctors’ offices have revolving doors with no end in sight. NOTHING is not preventable. NOTHING is terminal or incurable. Going forward, we are a species of BOSS beings, that will be partnered with miracles. Not to mention, a whole host of superior mediums will be integrated together to form a brand-new unwavering system of healthcare:

- Metaphysics
- Homeopathy
- Plant Medicine
- Herbal Medicine
- Reiki
- Acupuncture
- Aromatherapy
- Breathwork
- Therapeutic Massage
- Biofield Tuning/Sound Therapy
- Crystal Healing
- Auric Maintenance
- Meditation
- Creative Visualization
- Plant-based Nutrition
- Physical Fitness/stretching/yoga
- Mind/body attunement rituals

Healthcare 2.0 will be about self-preservation, & preventive maintenance, instead featuring a patchwork of superficial fixes, band aides, & long arduous roads to recovery. The goal will be to dissolve the mysteries surrounding any illness or disease, & to marginalize the impact of illness & disease altogether. The objective will be to ultimately phase out the need for hospitalization, eliminating high octane medical expenses & eradicating the Big Pharma profiteers, at the end of the day. This is great news! As a result, the time, energy & & money spent on endless disease research, & drug after drug development, will no longer be wasted. Indeed, there will be more funds, & MORE ROOM for accelerated research & development to take place, of things that matter... according to the new interdimensional criteria. This idea may sound far-fetched now, but it's very realistic in terms of "New Earth" or "Society 2.0." In the near future, we will be seeing reality through a whole new lens. Refer to chapters 11 & 12.

The dense & tangled garden of our educational programs, schools, colleges, institutions, & universities will be weeded & revised to fit a new 21st century standard for achievement. The murky waters of all curriculums will be distilled effectively into the purest form of TRUTH. Universal Law, Metaphysics, Quantum Mechanics & the Sciences will be woven together at last. Psychology & Spirituality will complement & complete each other like the long-lost lovers they are. Numerology & Astrology will be an integral part & parcel of the entire infrastructure of our fundamental curriculum. No longer will schools be dominated by left-brained ego-centered logic, rational reasoning & Belief Systems (B.S.). We will build houses of higher learning wherefore TRUTH is the only program of study. The development of the spiritual centers in the brain will determine a human being's capacity for growth, advancement & intellectual expansion.

- pineal gland
- pituitary gland
- hypothalamus gland

As a collective we will learn how to recalibrate these spiritual centers on a regular basis to maintain optimal functionality, for this reason. Like a guitar has strings that get tuned, our body is our instrument & our strings are our glands & chakras. GLANDS are instrumental to our growth & development as a human being. Each of the 7 chakras in the auric anatomy are linked to a specific gland. New Earth practices & programs will unequivocally honor their functionality & the royal role they play in our lives. If our “strings” are out of tune... so are we. Refer to chapter 9 “Got Moves?” in “The Age of Aquarius” book, for more on why chakras & glands are of paramount importance to our best-self attunement. (see “Meet Her Books” for special Author Note)

When the left & right brain hemispheres are “joined in holy matrimony,” so to speak, Divine equilibrium takes place & Yin/Yang will be personified within each individual on Earth, thus, the collective. This means that... alas! The Divine Feminine & the Divine Masculine will be as one! BALANCE will be a natural disposition for each of us, & MODERATION will be a default gear. Won't that be a gosh-dang miracle! No more “Bipolar Nation” with manic tendencies & erratic episodes. No more extreme weather, or extreme volatility lashing our planet & her resources. As a culture, & as a civilization, there will be no more separation anxiety, or divisive drama. “Unity Consciousness” will be an understanding we all equally share. Race, color, ethnicity, sexual preference, age or gender will not be a factor in the mainstream of our collective engagements & affairs. This may indeed be hard to fathom now, in the transformational phase of purging humanity circa 2021-22, however, it is indeed imminent. Despite appearances, the lightworkers across the world in conjunction with the higher realms of “spirit helpers,” are working tirelessly to enhance & integrate higher frequencies into the mother matrix of Gaia.

Factoid: Record Keeper Quartz Crystals are holders of universal wisdom, each triangle acts as a locked door. Once attuned to the Record Keeper, psychic recovery of the information can be attained by holding the door to the third eye during meditation. Record Keeper Quartz stimulates one’s latent healing potential, elevates one’s vibration, promotes personal peace, love and understanding.

While smaller record keeper crystals can enhance & activate an individual’s or group’s ability to receive higher intel, a larger crystal can & will activate a larger body. That said, there are actual GIANT Record Keeper Crystals that have been recently placed or inserted into the earth along certain sacred meridians. The Earth’s “body” has acupuncture meridians just like individual people do. When activated, the “body” of the human race is affected just the same, as we are an extension of Mother Earth’s body. “Raiders of the Lost Ark” style, this specially selected team of associates was sent on a mission that they have since victoriously completed. These Record Keeper Crystals will now activate the human race’s ability to receive greater existential frequencies. The strategically placed crystals will behave much like an acupuncture needle in this way. Thus, going forward, our ability to access the higher realms of Immaculate Intel will be unparalleled with any other time in recorded history.

We are certainly blessed & lucky here in this auspicious 21st century!!

“There comes a time when one must take a position that is neither safe, nor politic, nor popular, but he must take it because conscience tells him it is right.”

~~Martin Luther King Jr.

Chapter 2: Pandora's Box Is Smoldering, Now What?

All the apparent devastation we currently see taking place on the world stage: wildfires, shootings, bombings, refugees, collapse, environmental disaster, disease, death, division, destruction, corruption, poverty, pollution, scarcity, greed, illness, overindulgence, & ABUSE... is all just the PURGING of a long lineage of UN-grace, if you will. It must surface, to be transmuted to light. There is no other way to rid the planet of it, then drawing it to the surface for release. Any stuck pattern & program must unearth in order to be gone for good. THIS is what Pandora's Box burning means, folks, & the future of our species depends on it. The burning of Pandora's Box is the catalyst for Humanity's Final Frontier which is... World Peace, Ahimsa & the law of the land becoming LOVE. Don't be alarmed, this is the stage in human evolution where everything is coming to a head on purpose, to be cleared or burned into the fire of transmutation, so peace can be possible.

What exactly is this "Pandora's Box?"

- ☠ Pandora's Box is filled with outdated programs of all the fear, doubt, & worry associated with lack, limitation & poverty consciousness
- ☠ Pandora's Box is filled with the sludge of yesteryear still holding folks back from living their best life
- ☠ Pandora's Box is chock full of guilty regrets, "sin," sickness, illness, issues, dis-eases, disorders, discontent & disillusionment
- ☠ Pandora's Box is crawling with imbalance, melancholy, irritability, anger, sadness, unrest, anxiety, fruitless drama, & toxic energies

Rock bottom has been hit. Onward & upward is humanity's only solution & sole salvation. For to go back & live as we have been living all these years would be like a butterfly trying to stuff its wings back inside of its caterpillar core. It would feel unnatural, uncomfortable, & painful. It would be like a snake shedding its skin & then going back & trying to wiggle back into it again. That's silly. A 12-year-old doesn't save last year's sneakers & try to wear them when his or her foot grew a whole size. That's silly, the shoe wouldn't fit. We, the human species, have grown a whole size, & if you didn't get the memo yet, THIS IS IT. Get with the (new) program. This is your opportunity to learn it. Pay attention! This is humanity's last & final frontier where man crosses through the dark tunnel to the other side where "Eden" awaits. It may sound like fiction, but it is indeed, very real FREEDOM. The "land of the free & home of the brave" is defined by it. This is the TRUE AMERICAN DREAM.

On rising from the smoldering ASH

Going forward, the human race is expected to successfully transcend to a cosmic civilization of beings that coexist harmonically & thus cocreate with the God force, Angels, Guides & Elementals... to live free & in the totality of LOVE. Ahhhhhh, doesn't that sound sublime! After all we've been through?? Forging ahead, although it could take longer than predicted, there is absolutely no doubt in my mind that we, as a human nation, will get there in this century. The higher we ascend, the faster we vibrate, swift progress is made & advancement takes place. This is the way we were always meant to live here, since the dawn of man, really.

This was always destined to be the outcome of our species. This isn't some fluke, or made-up storyline, this was a preordained evolutionary design that has been imprinted into the infinite Akasha since the beginning of time. Stick around for more on the Akasha later. Check out Chapter 3: Do No Harm in "God's 21st Century" for a complete understanding. (see "Meet Her Books" for special Author Note)

While we are here in this temporary body vehicle, we have a responsibility to ourselves, to each other, to Mother Earth & the planet... to be our purest selves. We have a responsibility to honor & uphold the inner code of wellness, peace, grace, beauty & joy to not only survive here... but own our responsibility to thrive here abundantly and... spread---that---wealth. THAT... is America's divine design. THAT... is every human being's divine design. We are here to grow & live fully beyond the confines of the outdated primitive mind. We are no longer cave people wandering around trying to figure stuff out. The primitive "reptilian brain" is where duality reigns supreme, lack & limitation live, scarcity is a driving force and pleasure & pain taunt & tease each other into manipulative scenarios. The reptilian brain is where the amygdala & ego are tight chums who trap us into fear-based thinking on the false premise of keeping us safe & protected. No longer must we buy into this flawed primitive outdated Belief System, by default.

Going forward, if we want to fulfil the divine prophecy of New Earth values, we must commit to proactively honor our true selves. Our true self is NOT the reptilian brain's faux misrepresentation. Our true self is the truth inside of us that says: we are all made in the image of a grand God force which is made of vivacious bouncing high vibrational miracle light. We have unlimited powers of greatness within us at our disposal, right here, right now. All we have to do is ask, or grant permission, then allow & merge with it. That's why free will was installed in the first place. We were never taught how to properly utilize free will to benefit our highest good. Over centuries, our "free will component" appears to have been compromised, largely misunderstood & thus, precariously misused.

That said, each & every one of us has an elite spirit team of guides, angels, & inter-dimensional physicists that can & will assist in clearing played-out old codes that no longer serve our best interest & wellbeing. Simultaneously, our soul circuitry will be upgraded to integrate with new freedom codes. This is their job at this time, just as much as it is ours. So, we are not alone in this process of renewal & regeneration. They are here in record numbers with us, to assist us, at our beck & call. For the sake of ourselves & all those we affect & influence... we must consistently give them permission to act on our behalf, intervene, guide, & lead us into the most benevolent outcomes. THIS, friends, is what using free will properly, looks like.

We live in a time of accelerated evolution. The frequency of our planet (Mother Gaia) is also receiving upgrades, hence the “Record Keeper Crystals,” a demonstration of this. As just stated, the faster the energy moves, momentum builds, & progress is swift & seamless. We as a culture & nation of human beings have landed in a time in man’s history that is unveiling what it really means to be here. We are now finally learning what Earth life for a human is meant for. We are now finally learning WHY our souls have chosen to participate in the “grand human experiment” throughout time, centuries, millennia. We have all known each other before. We are the “human family.” We are all in a melting pot of the one big cosmic soup of our galaxy & the cosmos itself. Our souls have all the wisdom & intelligence they need to travel through time at the speed of light, bouncing back & forth between portals of birth & death, life & reincarnation. We are indeed eternal, infinite, immortal beings of light that are no different than energy that is not created or destroyed. Einstein famously said: “Energy cannot be created or destroyed, it can only be changed from one form to another.” Souls in human suits are thus included.

Life here on Planet Earth is just a fleeting enterprise of seconds, minutes, hours, days, months, years that essentially all lead us back home to where the heart is. The still quiet mind is where the heart is. It is the place where the “nowhere” of NOW HERE lives, youth springs eternal & painless beingness is experienced. Heaven dawns via stillness practices. True joy in the void is embodied here. Once we master dipping our paintbrush into this bliss, we can assimilate that space of grace to our waking, active-living-doing lives. Our “being state” & our “doing state” become one... & peace is born from that union. This sacred tantric blending is indeed: Divine Union. THIS, is our goal. THIS, is our one true purpose here... to blend our humanity with the soul light within via the continuity of integrated stillness practices. Then... dear one, we will be FREE. This is the “door” than no man can shut.

“I know thy works. Behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it.” —Revelation 3:8

For your information, I work for an elite team of spirit guides who give me assignments daily. These are mostly writing assignments where I am able to use my best gifts & abilities to administer to whomever may need the guidance that they spell out. Contained within all reading material, are playful instruction guides, how to manuals for living life BEST. How to books step by step even, to facilitate an easier path of least resistance while travelling through this life. Everybody’s got their own thing, their own talent, skill, gift, purpose. Your FIRST purpose in this life, is to find that purpose. Then... when you find that purpose, your purpose is to lead by example, by BEING your purpose. How do you “be” your purpose? By doing whatever it is your purpose has you do as a proactive agent for the greater good. “Purpose” & “passion” are interchangeable words in this case.

That’s really all there is to it. Ascending to higher levels is not some big, grandiose, complicated process fit for a king. It simply entails finding an undisturbed space to quiet the mind on a daily regular basis for intervals of time... & SIT or BE still. Then you will be led on to other things via this practice. This is the “seek ye first” part of the “all else will be added unto you” famous Jesus quote from the Bible. What proceeds then, will be your divine design... the other things... ALL ELSE added. One bite at a time, one moment at a time, you will see your fate unfold, your dreams realize, your program be updated & upgraded to a tight ship that sails on the eternal seas of infinite grace, oneness & wellness, not the temporal bullshit of Belief Systems. You will be plugged in, as they say.

As you CHOOSE to row your boat gently down the stream of stillness...

you will see your life begin to fall into perfect place as it rightfully deserves to & should. You deserve the truth, nothing less. This is your truth, protect it with your life. Honor it, by surrendering to it daily, & allowing it to surface in your life via the practice of going within to the waters of down the stream stillness. Then, life will truly be a dream. Life thus becomes merrily merrily, merrily... but a dream. Being a student of grace requires us to commit to the virtual classroom of cosmic consciousness where we may therein be fortified daily with intuitive instruction manuals on how to be BEST.

How do you think epic feature films wind up on the big screen with sweeping recognition, impact & accolades, memorialized in the Hollywood Hall of Fame? What is behind outstanding earworm songs that get played for decades? What is in the secret sauce of those speeches spoken that lift a whole crowd, that capture a huge following, that go down in history? Just what is that compelling content of character of the people that have holidays created in their name, statues made in their honor, benches & buildings dedicated to them, even towns or parks with their likeness on a mural? Just what is this: je ne sais quoi, exactly? This is the streaming greatness of not man... but of God's image beaming from inside of man.

In other words, this is the soul in the suit peering through being heard, making a mark, leaving an impression, making history, memorializing moments, warming hearts, sweeping people off their feet. This is the soul in the suit peering through, restoring faith in something greater, more beautiful, & perfect. This is the soul in the suit peering through, helping people remember what true love really feels like, & what the experience of joy, wonder & enchantment is. This is the soul in the suit peering through, reminding us of what passion & purpose can drive us to do, be, discover, conquer, & achieve. This is the soul in the suit peering through, reminding us that life can be a glorious set of circumstances that serve us, serve each other, serve the planet, & serve our divine design most of all.

In this current Earth continuum of space & time... we have reached a tipping point. Human beings are on the threshold of the most monumental breakthrough to have ever been experienced here before. We are now infinitely greater beings than even the Ancient Ones who proceeded us thousands of years ago & clearly, they were way more advanced with pyramid technology & the like. We are now going to surpass their levels of advancement with a clear knowing of who we are as a soul in the human suit, full circle. In this full circle realization, we can have a completion of sorts where we are able to exceed all expectations, go beyond our wildest dreams, & grow & advance here on this Earth plane like never before. Hence, the “shift of the ages.”

It's time for us to redeem ourselves & wake up fully to ourselves by gaining ourselves back. The cosmic consciousness of the Christ Mind is always available to us through our ability to tap into it & connect with it. Bathing in the stillness of it will keep us aligned with it. Esther Hicks' or Abraham's vortex is merely this. The “vortex” is not some unattainable far off VIP place. The vortex is just another way of saying the nothingness of stillness where the inter-dimensional pathways are crossing. By tapping into it, being one with it... we may thus become another conduit for Immaculate Intelligence to travel. THIS is how canvases are painted with all a manner of extraordinary expressions.

If we have a traffic jam of billions of random chaotic, melancholy thought forms running wild all day everyday... then these limitless forces of light that wish to infiltrate our life & make us prosperous, kind, joyful & free... will be unable to. They will be blocked by our inadvertent permission we continuously give to our monkey mind chatter & consciousness clutter to reign supreme & run the show. If we are to give permission to the former, we must practice the “art of allowing” via stillness. Then & only then will all our HIGH-ways open up. The currency at the toll bridges of these High-ways is STILLNESS.

The following statement, mentioned prior, came from Jesus' sermon on the mount: “Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and [his] righteousness; and all else shall be added unto you.” This here book you're jumping into, is going to walk you right into your very own sacred space (Kingdom of God), where the “ALL ELSE” that will be added to you... will be ACTIVATED. Keep going, you're doing great...!

“The real revolution, is the evolution of consciousness.”

Chapter 3: I.I. or A.I.? That Is the Question

The best way to reach any reader is to create content that is effervescent enough to be heard through the noise of a room, beach, busy bus station, waiting room, airliner, or even your own monkey mind chatter. A page turner of sorts, it must then thus be palpable enough to be consumed, hopefully on a level of absorption that furnishes key nutrients, not just fat fluff & empty calories. A string of written words, is food after all, food for thought at the least, nourishment for the heart, mind & soul at best & muck & clutter at worst that brainwashes, corrupts files, traumatizes or infects thinking. Who wants to read words that may create a stir in the heart, a tightness in the chest, a welling of defeat in the gut, a sapping of the soul? Defunct words are those that may attempt to sabotage the truth into B. S. (belief systems) or... foil any good work you've done to undo mistruths accrued over a lifetime of being exposed to the B.S. This book aims to support the quest for truth, not impede it, cover it up, or distort it. Your brain, heart & body are safe here.

A waking of the wrong emotions, thereof, ping ping ping! Like BB gun shots, where sleeping wolves lie, does not serve us well. That's certainly not for me, I've experienced enough static for one lifetime. That said, you can trust the integrity of these strung together words, sentences & chapters. It's officially safe for your walls to come down, & your focus to be fixed. It's okay, it's not gonna bite. You have before you, the sweet kind animal of Immaculate Intelligence. Let it be your guide. However, I'm not gonna lie, the content ahead may indeed challenge your B.S., but that's a good thing. Let it. This means it's working.

Immaculate Intel (I.I.) OR Artificial Intel (A.I.)

Which feed do you want to streamline your consciousness with daily? Which background music do you choose to play? Because the life of leaders is run on the former, & sheeple... run only on the latter.

Let me be clear, each time this book refers to A.I. or Artificial Intelligence, the brand I am referring to is the consciousness of lower vibration. I am not referring to Google's definition that refers to A.I. as artificial intelligence (AI), the ability of a digital computer or computer-controlled robot to perform tasks commonly associated with intelligent beings. The unique interpretation of A.I. coined here, is one that defines ARTIFICIAL not as in technology, but ARTIFICIAL as in illusion, fluff, shadow, dark energy, low vibratory frequency, drama, static, confusion, lower 4D, & 3D “Intelligence,” if you even want to call it that. Quite simply, on the other end of the spectrum, Immaculate Intelligence then, is self-explanatory. Immaculate Intelligence is a consciousness of high vibration, of high caliber Christ Consciousness, Cosmic Consciousness, Grace, God’s will, Divine Mind, whatever you want to call it.

That said, A.I.’s redundant influential vibratory frequency is strung throughout all life on this planet. Even my cats are affected by media driven agendas, TV, radio & all devices infiltrated by A.I. that continuously stream into our layers of consciousness. On a cellular, atomic & subatomic level all day & night beneath the radar, A.I. sneaks into even our sleep & dreams. Our pets are sponges to it. More importantly, our children are sponges to it. Our children are victimized by it, frankly, assaulted, psychically attacked & undermined. Parental controls should go way beyond just tech devices. Parental controls should include curbage of the outside world. A withdrawal of sorts should be issued on the regular, from the exposure to the mainstream operations of a consumeristic ridden society. Children should be encouraged to have habitual daily respites in nature, in the silence of the garden of the mind where grace can be cultivated & I.I. is prevalent, organically streaming & accessible. We all should be encouraged to run free in the open air where I.I. is loud & clear, & the “still small voice” is actually not so small.

Exploited expressions & impressions of sex & violence get assimilated to young developing minds in the imprint years via the A.I. rampant in video games. This is how tragedies like school shootings are born. School shootings are carried out by adolescents who are then institutionalized for the rest of their lives, which is a tragedy in & of itself. This is a preventable statistic. If we are not mindful, A.I. will brainwash our kids before they even graduate diapers & a ba ba. By the time they hit puberty they will be hooked, lined, & sinking. By the time they are about to pop out the diploma, they will be good & SUNK. And when they hit the real world & all it demands, they will buckle, because their skill set will be the subpar kind that we as parents, guardians, teachers & counselors, allowed them to artificially acquire. We will have essentially failed them, by failing to provide them with the proper tools to thrive.

It is OUR responsibility to properly arm our young humans with tools, weapons, & wisdom. It is our job in the hierarchy of humanhood to protect young spongy minds that are essentially forming the fundamental thought patterns & belief systems that will eventually create their realities & affect all those around them. Their very success, peace, wellness, health, wholeness, happiness, ease & flow DEPENDS on it. It is up to those who care for these young hearts to encourage I.I. instead of A.I. This will help them harness a soul directed life, as opposed to an egoic rationalizing left brain dominated life built from limitation, & F.U.D. (fear, uncertainty & doubt). The future of our world depends on it.

We must nip it in the bud immediately out of the womb starting them with a regimen of soul gardening via prayer, nature, meditation, yoga, breath work, holistic health, wellness, & plant-based diets. We must rear them to have fluent unimpeded communion with spirit guides, angels & the Earth elementals that are so often ignored & shunned as if they aren't real. We must teach our babies & youth in those very beginning formative fragile spongy “imprint” years how to commune with their individual “I am” presences & how to plug into the one heart presence via Zen arts & chakra maintenance. Comparable to if you were to teach a five-year-old how to speak French or play the violin. Consistent practice leads to a default practice that gets embedded on a subconscious level & becomes a part of that young human's psyche. Thus, the adult version of that very disciplined human, creates & manifests, by default, a super soul existence based on I.I., instead of A.I. Why? Because that's what they were taught to nurture, nourish, bring forth, optimize & cocreate very early on. Bingo!

Not to mention, the ethereal help of the cosmic collective does not hurt to have as a super support system. Thus, life & living, growing, learning & developing is a whole team effort, as they learned early, to let angels & guides in. They learned early in their formative stages to ALLOW & ASK their benevolent spirit helpers & the sacred elementals all around us... to assist ALL ENDEAVORS on their behalf. As said prior, life will in effect, be a team effort put forth by a collective energy rooting for their highest good, the highest good of others, the planet & mankind.

If we teach our children to tap into the benevolent guidance available to them from day 1, they will learn that in truth... life is a co-creative endeavor that is a delicate balance of free will and "God's will." God's will is accessed THROUGH our free will to surrender to communing with I.I. or rather plugging into I.I. at all times. By "letting go & letting God" this way, we do not lose our individual identity or unique personality or original talents or traits, like the ego had tried to convince man all these centuries... but, we actually FIND ourselves even more. We accentuate all the beautiful things we are by allowing our Divine team of guides to help us be our best & brightest versions. That is not lost, that is the most extreme version of FOUND. Hence, the lyrics to "Amazing Grace" were born.

It has been said famously "we were born to succeed but programmed to fail." Read THAT again.

We came here to have fun. Suffering is no way to live, yet we have thus been the proprietors of suffering not just for ourselves but worse, for other living beings due to our own propensity. "Misery loves company" naturally, just as water seeks its own level naturally. Because we have cultivated a culture of suffering here on Earth within our own human community, we, in effect, are then thus responsible for influencing all life around us with the same vibration. Over centuries of living here on this planet, human beings have perpetuated insidious pain, sadness, anger & suffering not only within their own, but throughout nature. Animals are mass casualties, the ecosystem, the environment, children, our entire world order is at stake here. We have been under the spell of suffering for way too long, and it is time to lift the curse... by cultivating peace instead. Psych 101 states: that you do not undo a problem by picking and poking at it, you undo a problem with a solution. Then you focus on the solution & eventually the solution expands & floods out the problem. This is HOW love always wins.

Eventually on Earth... our human species will go beyond this “uprising,” the “dawning of the Age of Aquarius” brings, & we will embody full 5D. The ascension process will lead us to a higher vibrational state of consciousness that we will have been learning, implementing & practicing to uphold. At which time, we will be available for extra & ultra-terrestrial “contact” because the elevated frequency they behold will become more congruent with ours as we grow. As it stands, our collective vibration is quite dissident from theirs, which is why “contact” would be startling for us now. But this will indeed change as we ascend to 5D.

If you would like to be a frequency keeper that sustains a higher vibration, you must practice the patience that comes with knowing the art of stillness. Holding space for love & light is the sole & SOUL goal of each of us, essentially. If you as a person want to live a soul-inspired life with a soul-inspired business or vocation that truly serves your target audience with genuine leadership, then you best gitcheyer sit on. How can you hold space, if you cannot create space? Creating space is one of the most valuable skills we can cultivate here as humans. It is indeed the love, & peace & Divine Immaculate Intel that IS: the solution.

To be a “space holder” for our species, we must commit to creating space on the daily via deliberate sit sessions. Space doesn't create itself. The human body is a 3D limited construct that is merely animated by soul. So, while our mind may appear to be made of ethereal limitless soul material... it has a free will component that tends to unplug us from divine deity & replug us into “other things.” The mind can choose either finite rational logic or the wide wingspan of imagination. That's the basis of free will. This is the character trait that sets us apart from all other living creatures here. This is why we are deemed by “holy code” to have “domain over Earth & her inhabitants.” Our sacred responsibility is to take care of her & protect her, not rape, squander & destroy her.

By default, free will creates a firestorm of thoughts racing in a zillion directions, pulling & pushing us here & there. Thus, it is our DUTY to use free will at certain times to choose to part the red sea... & walk through to the promised land (stillness) deliberately. If we do not, we will be tossed. The sea will swallow us up & never give us the opportunity to accrue any kind of lasting value as a soul. Life will wind up being a superficial surfacy mess of swarming feelings in a congested 5 o'clock traffic jam of confusion, unawareness, indecision, & questionable circumstances. Sound familiar? The victim mentality feeds off this. "Poor me," "why me," syndrome is born from this. This is just the kind of winey wreckage that bottom-feeder vampires & thieves love to feast on. Racing thoughts will weed up your beautiful clear path so fast that you will get tangled up, trip, fall, crawl & grovel until you find a way through. Use the sit sessions now, before you wind up in a struggle puddle of disenchantment, or disappointment, a Dracula castle or a dumpmy motel on the edge of town where only trolls live that use you. Ewe. Learning how to meditate sounds a lot better of an idea. Ya think?

It's very simple. If you want to be a light bringer to this world or a more localized light bringer to your immediate circle & family, those you love or touch on the regular... you must cultivate an inner sanctuary. If you do not responsibly choose to CREATE space via practicing stillness... you will never be a space holder. A person is only as good as his garden. If your garden is tangled up with weeds & dead or rotting things that attract pests & scavengers... then that's what kind of aura you are sharing with those you influence small or large scale. It's each human's personal responsibility to keep a groomed inner garden with fragrant flowers & a sun-showered, hydrated, pruned, cultivated, vibrant life force of thriving "vegetation."

At any given time, your energetic influence may be anywhere in between the two polarities, however, it is now time for us as a collective race of humans to focus on returning our gardens to "Eden." If we do not, we will continue the patterns of the struggle & strife life, of undernourished, unnurtured survival mentality. We will thus be dragging our tails & feet like low energy beings that vibrate at a very finite frequency just barely breathing shallow inaudible breaths... never knowing the true meaning of what it is to truly love or live. And that's no fun. Life is meant to be fun in the sun, hydrated, healthy, happy, alive & breathing in good ass life force prana every second.

That said, not learning how to meditate is like deliberately choosing to suffocate your inner garden. It is like deliberately giving a license to shadows to invade your space. It is deliberately allowing your aura to be invaded by space invaders. The only way to protect your personal auric boundaries is to cultivate your garden to be so bright, brilliant & self-sustaining that it cannot be sabotaged by dark forces. Inner sanctum is a choice. It doesn't just happen. But once it builds, it becomes a spiritual structure that no man can penetrate. Once it builds, it becomes a spiritual structure that no shadow or dark force can saturate. Once it builds, it becomes a spiritual structure that no attachment, wild 4D "sit-in," stuck stale spirit, ghost, entity or phantom can infiltrate, possess or entice with fruitless temporary greedy fixes. Meditation can save the world. Yip. Can we all just get along?

Nothing can dim your light if it's so bright that it snaps out every artificial bulb in its wake. Make your inner electricity so intense that it floods out anything less. Make your garden so vibrant, flavorful & lifegiving, that nourishment becomes your middle name. Make your inner space be so secure & spacious that your heartbeat can be heard & felt for miles. Love is only experienced, based on your ability to hold space.

Ode to the Smoker

Put out the cigarette. Put down the vape. There's no such thing as a tobacco-stained cape. Superheroes don't smoke. Nope! There are plenty of clouds in the sky... who needs a battery charged artificially flavored lie? E-cigs aren't cool. They will poison your lungs & play you for a fool.

Anyone who feels the incessant urge to inhale anything other than good ass prana, is suffocating their ability to push past limits & dethrone delusional drama. The smoker, on some level, if not all, chooses to move no faster... than a low vibrational crawl. The smoker is deathly afraid of taking life in fully. To them, a champion who wins, feels like an antagonizing bully. Under the radar, playing it safe & small, this is his style, leaning fashionably up against the wall.

The smoker has the “perpetually bored dis-ease”, which makes him awkward & irritable if he goes on too long without a fix. This makes him a walking, talking, muddled energy field that can only take surfacy sips. The smoker operates no deeper than what the senses crave. His inner compass is an overactive penchant for which he is a slave. He is the instant gratification guy, being satisfied, grounded & relaxed is not his forte, for he tends to be a squirmy little devil who is easily distracted by the next shiny object to bat a lash his way.

Prone to erratic shifts, the smoker often gets caught in the struggle puddles of the “polar” express. He goes up... he goes down, he goes up... he goes down... in a wave of fidgety stress. His EZ chair is nestled right into the rollercoaster ride, for he is the mayor of sheeple-town where blindfolds are fastened & hands are tied. Sheeple-town is a lovely land for the smoker to roost. He can hide & deny & be shamelessly seduced. Like a barely breathing snake in a tangle of thorny hatches, he can safely blend right in... to the smoldering ashtrays, butts & matches.

Chapter 4: Watch Your Back; Don't Get Stung

Your aura is an energy field composed of vibrations that make up the health of your “light body.” It is the invisible bubble you carry around everywhere on a daily, second by second basis & is your own personal “room,” if you will. If your auric field is cloudy, compromised, corrupted, clogged, damaged, distorted, disturbed, dim, dank, or drab, you will not catch me around for long. Who wants to walk into a creepy room with no windows & poor air quality that smells like stale fries & old socks, let alone hang out there? I only share space, time & consciousness with people who take soul maintenance seriously. Making a concerted effort to be a responsible caretaker of your temple means: stillness practice, chakra balancing, energy clearing, & auric cleansing.

BAD VIBES DON'T GO WITH MY OUTFIT

If you consume meat, dairy, alcohol, high fructose corn syrup, soda, or overdose on sucralose; if you sit in a smoke cloud of cigarettes, vape mist or weed like it's going out of style; if you watch or listen to convoluted drama or negative news, feed into gossip or grief; if your vibe is toxic, low level, heavy, dense, shadowy, dark, sick, sticky, needy, whiny, fear-based, anxious, unsettled, angry, limited, or stagnant; if you even have a percentage of any variation of the things mentioned...? I don't care if you're Brad Pitt... BE ADVISED, you will be kept at a safe distance. It's nothing personal. It's your choice to be you, it's my choice to be me. It's as simple as that. A like attracts a like. We attract who & what we are. It's “the mirror law.” If you would like to attract healed, whole, super awesome people... you must first BE ONE.

Tip: WATER does wonders for the body & soul, bathe in it often & drink it generously. The vibratory frequency of water is magnetic, drawing unto it healing & cleansing properties, thus targeting whatever needs to be cleared in the energy field. Why do you think baptisms are traditionally performed with an anointing of water? Capitalize on this natural resource, that's what it's there for!

“Why me?” is a lie made up by a cave man mentality better known as the ego. Similarly, the victim card and poor me syndrome are essentially fabricated concepts devised to keep us stuck on a rat wheel of sorts. We have thus become slaves to a society that we have allowed to blind us with this kind of false information. In truth, we are co-creators with Divine design & should rightfully behave accordingly & act responsibly. Universal Law which is God’s Law should be logistically woven into the fabric of a universal curriculum taught in our schools to our young minds, nation & worldwide. Period.

Going forward, if we were to be a wise society, we would rewrite all official textbooks to reflect Universal Law, & never look back. Our children would then grow up by default... to be victors instead of victims. This “middle-aged karmic clean up” the current generations find themselves having to contend with to get free & live a best life... will no longer be applicable to healed humans. The middle-aged crisis of corrections will no longer play out or be necessary for future generations that learn how to apply Universal Law in the first place, in the early stages of their development. It’s not rocket science. It makes perfect sense & actually solves most problems in the world.

Universal Law is not some woo woo fairy tale, it is LAW. What part of the word law, don’t people understand? There are no real mysteries here on Earth, like formerly believed & touted by historic literature & religious rhetoric & dogma. Let’s be all pompous & create false stories of big unknown enigmas for gain, entertainment or false control. It’s not that dramatic, people. The victim card might make good TV, but it’s definitely not good living.

Every single happenstance occurs for a reason. “Every single action causes an equal & opposite reaction.” It’s a scientific law in physics uncovered by Sir Isaac Newton which can also be called: karma, in my view. “What comes around goes around.” Listen to some early recordings of Bob Marley & the Wailers some time, & they will teach you the rules & laws that apply to us while incarnate here on this planet. They had it down pretty darn pat, if ya ask me. The weed they were smokin’ really shifted their perspective to... REALITY, well beyond the become your actions; watch your actions, they become your habits; watch your habits, they become your character; watch your character, it becomes your destiny.” --Lao Tsao

I say: “Watch your back... what you allow to enter into your energy field, YOU BECOME.” This, my friends, is fair warning & should be all the information you ever need to be street smart in this world. Heed these words: protect your energy. It is the one thing that you can control to create your lot in life or destiny. It is, in truth, an imperative main priority & our first due diligent responsibility as humans on Earth. “Seek ye first the kingdom of God & all else will be added” Jesus statement ring any bells? This IS the kingdom. Tend to your energy body, soul, God identity... FIRST, & all the rest of everything else like your health, wholeness & happiness will just fall into place accordingly. Again... it’s Universal/God’s Law. And God’s Law is code for: not debatable.

In Psych 101, very basic fundamental knowledge taught in class is: Maslow’s pyramid chart/diagram of “the hierarchy of needs.” It is the EXACT SAME as any chakra diagram. Can someone tell me WHY no one has correlated the two & integrated the finding into basic curriculum over the years? Can someone tell me WHY no one has correlated the two & implemented them into classrooms of young minds in the early stages of development in the same pack of years that we teach “reading, writing & math??” Pardon my chagrin... but what the actual F?!
